RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, BERKELEY

Berkeley, CA

Graduate Student Researcher in Partnership with The Public Policy Institute of California

January 2023- Present

Responsible for overseeing three out of ten focus districts in a comprehensive three-year study focused on post-COVID recovery strategies and the utilization of increased state and federal funding by school leaders. Initial findings point to a wide variety of solutions to a similar set of problems across districts.

HEBREW UNIVERSITY OF JERUSALEM

Mount Scopus, Israel

Visiting Research Fellow

Summer 2024

Conducted a study on East Jerusalem teachers teaching civics courses under the supervision of Dr. Samira Alayan. Managed a research assistant and oversaw data collection over a two-month period. Initial findings suggest that teachers make use of pedagogical strategies to contest the narratives in the Israeli state curriculum.

RESEARCH-PRACTICE PARTNERSHIP BETWEEN OAKLAND SCHOOL DISTRICT AND UC-BERKELEY

Graduate Student Researcher

Oakland, CA

August 2022- January 2023

Co-designed and implemented a year-long research project with the New Teacher Support and Development Center, utilizing interview, focus group, and survey data to enhance site-district alignment and promote racial affinity pairings between new and mentor teachers. Findings include a high degree of overwhelm for first-year teachers, especially those without teaching credentials.

MASTERS THESIS

Jerusalem, Israel

May 12, 2023

Title: 'You Cannot Cross Me Out: The Use of Israeli Educational Materials in East Jerusalem'

Conducted qualitative research project aimed at better understanding the growing use of Israeli educational materials in East Jerusalem. Used participant observation and ethnographic interviews with teachers and administrators in multiple educational systems to better understand the phenomenon of 'Bagrut' preparation materials in schools that formerly used solely Palestinian Authority materials.
