

The Raby Fellowship in Secondary Education

Call for Proposals – Due September 30, 2016

The Raby Fellowship honors the memory of the late Dr. Marilyn Raby, who pioneered the career academy model in California high schools, integrating vocational and academic education to improve the preparation of young people for both college and careers.

CRITERIA

The Raby Fellowship was established to support students enrolled in a graduate program in the Graduate School of Education at the University of California, Berkeley whose work focuses on improving secondary education, especially for low-income and minority students who are under-represented in higher education.

The award for academic year 2016-2017 will be $2,500. To be considered for this award, please send a brief statement (no more than one page) explaining how your work fits the criteria and attach a resume or CV and a current transcript.

Please submit materials via email to Professor David Stern at dsstern@berkeley.edu by September 30, 2016.

SELECTION

Prospective recipients will be identified, screened and selected by Professor David Stern in accordance with award criteria and GSE procedures. Award notifications will be made by October 24, 2016.

REPORTING

Support for the Raby Fellowship is made possible by the generosity of private donors who are interested in learning about the students they are helping. The recipient of the Raby Fellowship will provide a personal letter, to be included in the University's annual report to the donors.

Please send your letter via email to Cecilia Winfield, GSE Development Associate at cwinfield@berkeley.edu by November 1, 2016.
